Calculate your costs

It may be that you are eligible for childcare allowance; a government reimbursement of your costs. You can check whether you are entitled to any allowance on the Tax Office's website.

If you are entitled to childcare allowance, you will receive an income-dependent contribution from the Tax Office. Would you like to know exactly how much you will pay? Use our calculation tool for an easy personal calculation.

Are you not entitled to childcare allowance?

Are you not entitled to childcare allowance from the Tax Office? The municipality may contribute to the cost of toddler care. You will pay a parental contribution, where the amount depends on the joint gross income.

Do you have an Early Years Statement (VE-indicatie)?

Has your child been given an Early Years Statement (VE-indicatie) by the health visitor? Then you get 2 half-days of 4 hours extra, which partially are being reimbursed by the municipality. You only pay a personal contribution of € 0.31 per hour for these hours.

If your toddler has a VE indication, there are 2 options:

- You are entitled to childcare allowance. You apply for childcare allowance for the first 8 hours. The extra 8 hours are partially reimbursed by the municipality. You pay a personal contribution of €0.31 per hour for this.
- You are not entitled to childcare allowance. You pay an income-related contribution for the first 8 hours, see previous table. The extra 8 hours are partially reimbursed by the municipality. You pay a personal contribution of €0.31 per hour for this.
